

Goal 8 - Develop a global partnership for development

Target: Address the special needs of the least developed countries

Net official development assistance — as a percentage of donor countries' gross national income (GNI) — has decreased over the last decade and is at an all-time low, and net ODA to least developed countries has decreased even more.

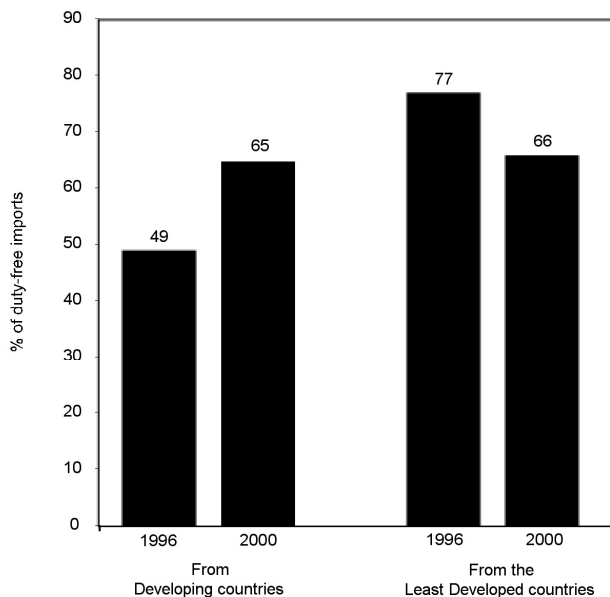

NET ODA, AS PERCENTAGE OF DONORS' GNI

Source: Report of the Secretary-General on implementation of the Millennium Declaration. Data based on data compiled by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development/Development Assistance Committee.

In recent years, the percentage of imports to developed countries (excluding arms and oil) admitted duty-free from developing countries has increased, based on dollar value. But the percentage of imports from least developed countries admitted duty-free has decreased.

DUTY-FREE IMPORTS TO DEVELOPED COUNTRIES

Source: Report of the Secretary-General on implementation of the Millennium Declaration. Data based on estimates by UNCTAD in collaboration with WTO and the World Bank.